

I saw an angel coming down out of heaven. He had the key to the Abyss. In his hand he held a heavy chain. He grabbed the dragon, that old serpent. The serpent is also called the devil, or Satan. The angel put him in chains for 1,000 years.

Revelation 20:1, 2

Revelation 20 says God has no problem restraining the serpent a.k.a. Satan for a 1000 years (millennium). Following the millennium of silence from Satan, many people still rebel and say no to following Jesus

Imagine what judgement day will look like after the serpent is released. Satan is thrown into the lake of fire along with anyone else whose name is not in the Book of Life.

Feel free to share your picture on Westview's Facebook page or display on the art wall in the west lobby at the church.